

Senior Consultant with gas and hydrogen expertise (f/m/d)

Your key tasks will be:

- Dealing with issues and key topics that are highly relevant to the strategic orientation of our clients
- Analysis of cross-border developments of gas transport networks
- Analysis of developments in the chemical sector that are relevant for electricity and gas transport networks in terms of sector coupling
- Market analyses with regard to the gas and chemical sector with focus on electrolysers and industrial clusters on a large scale
- Regulatory analyses for customers in the European gas industry involving political decision makers and regulatory authorities
- Assessment of gas networks, gas capacity allocation mechanisms, gas market design and regulation
- Development of a regulatory and policy framework for the implementation of the German government's hydrogen strategy

Your Competences include:

- Experience in the energy industry or energy management consulting
- Expertise in market design of gas and hydrogen markets
- Excellent degree
- Excellent analytical, conceptual and communication skills
- High motivation and commitment, a high degree of personal initiative:

This is what we offer you:

- Challenging projects, both in terms of content and technical orientation as well as the complexity and sensitivity of the topics
- Great personal creative leeway
- Possibility of cooperation and networking with the executives of the German and European energy industry
- Collaboration in a highly motivated and qualified multidisciplinary team

Please send your application by email to:

Astrid Schada / bewerbung@e-bridge.com

E-Bridge Consulting GmbH

Baumschulallee 15, 53115 Bonn - Tel.: +49 228 90 90 65 22 - www.e-bridge.com